

All Star/All Far East Player and Tournament MVP Rules/Guidelines

1. There will be 20 players from the tournament selected as an All Star/All Far East player.
2. All ten teams will have at least 2 player selected.
3. After every game the two coaches of the game being played will nominate one of their own players and nominate two players from their opposing team for selection as an All Star/All Far East player.
4. The player with the most votes will be named the Tournament MVP.
5. If there should be a tie for the All Star/All Far East player or MVP, I will form a committee and we will decide which player gets selected based on their performance in the tournament.
